

LOCALS AND PERSONALS

Miss Blanche Macdonald made a trip to Omaha last week, remaining over Sunday.

G. N. North, travelling salesman for the Victor talking machine, was in town Monday.

B. F. Giltman, who has been spending the last six weeks in Wisconsin, is expected home next week.

Misses Dorothy Hoag and Blanche Macdonald returned Monday night from their over-Sunday visit in Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McFall, of Reno, were two of the Sheridan county people to visit Alliance during the last week.

Attorney Eugene Burton went to Hemingford last Saturday and from there out to Sam Graham's ranch to spend a few days rusticated.

H. C. Glissmann and J. J. Grabow of Douglas county were in Alliance the first of the week looking for a business location. Mr. Glissmann, who is Mr. Grabow's father-in-law, is a big dealer in Holstein cattle and Mr. Grabow is in the mercantile business at Chalco. They both seem to be quite favorably impressed with Alliance and it is probable one of them will decide to go into business here.

I. U. Hager received word the first of the week from Denver that his automatic regulator had been tried on a White Steamer automobile and that it worked perfectly. He is now getting ready to try the regulator on a crude oil locomotive. There is prospect that the Southern Pacific and the C. R. I. & P. will adopt this regulator for use on their systems where crude oil is burned.

Supt. W. R. Pate of the Alliance city schools was called to Lincoln last week to attend a meeting of the Executive committee of the State Teachers' Association. He left Alliance Friday noon and arrived on his return Sunday noon. The meeting of the executive committee was held Saturday.

The Industrial Society of the Baptist church held an all day session yesterday at the home of Mrs. Powell, north of town. An enjoyable meeting is reported and a good deal of work was accomplished.

An error in the name of Thos. Fay of Iowa City, in a personal local in The Herald occurred in the issue of November 30. The item read "Shay." Mr. Fay is a brother of John Fay of this city, with whom he visited recently.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Ralfts are leaving today for Happy, Tex., where they will reside on a farm. They have many friends in Alliance who regret to see them leave but who will hope that the place to which they are going will be as pleasant as its name would seem to indicate. Mr. Ralfts has been in the employ of the C. B. & Q. at Alliance for some time past, working in the ticket office.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Knight returned Saturday night from Custer, S. D., where they went recently with the hopes of improving their health and also to see their son, who has been ill for some time. They had expected to remain there quite a while but found that the altitude was too great for them and consequently returned home sooner than they expected. The Herald is pleased to note that they left their son somewhat improved in health.

Jack Berry of the Co-Operative store was in Edgemont a couple of days this week. He is well satisfied with the volume of business being done here and is going to materially increase his stock.

Engineer Edwards is now running one of the freight engines between Alliance and Edgemont on account of his turn on the Deadwood line being pulled off.

Engineer Martin of the Sterling Division has been transferred to the Alliance Division and is now running switch engine in the yards here.

W. D. McIntyre, until recently of Hemingford, now receives his copy of The Herald at Albany, Nebr., and

A. M. Thompson's address is changed from Hemingford to Whittier, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. George D. Workman are the happy parents of a bouncing baby boy, born to them Tuesday morning of this week.

After going to Colorado on a pleasure trip a few weeks ago, I. L. George, one of The Herald's many Sheridan county readers, writes us a very interesting letter descriptive of Colorado scenes. We would be pleased to give our readers the benefit of the letter if space and time permitted.

Mr. and Mrs. Bomgardner terminated their visit with relatives and friends at Alliance last Friday and left on 44 that day for their home at Bloomington, Illinois. Their last previous visit here was two years ago, and they expressed themselves as surprised and pleased with the improvements that had been made in Alliance during that time.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Ray returned to Alliance Tuesday, having been here for a few days on account of the serious illness of Mr. Ray's sister, Mrs. L. A. Fossey. In the early days when Ellis was a young man he lived at Caldwell, his father being postmaster there. He is now in the plumbing business in Alliance.—Morrill Mall, Dec. 8.

L. C. Mason came down from Alliance three weeks ago and since then has been busily engaged in building an addition to and plastering the house on the ranch five miles north of town. He expects to remain here during the winter and assist those who desire his services in the masonry line.—Hyannis Tribune, Dec. 7.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Odell arrived last Friday night from Sheridan to accept positions at the Majestic theatre. They have had several years' experience in the show work and their assistance at the Majestic will add very much to the practical features of that popular place of entertainment.

We are pleased to add to The Herald subscription list this week the name of Geo. G. Smith, 920 Cheyenne Ave., the efficient manager of the Alliance Steam Laundry. Since taking charge of the laundry a few weeks ago Mr. Smith has been conducting the business in a way highly satisfactory to proprietor and patrons. The Alliance Steam Laundry is an industrial institution of considerable importance to this city. Quite a number of persons are employed at fair wages, the laundry work of the city is kept at home, besides some work being done for neighboring towns.

Your Christmas gifts will not be quite complete unless you use at least a few Red Cross stamps to help along in the good cause of stamping out the great white plague.

CROOK-SHAFFER
J. Stanley Crook, of Alliance, Nebraska, and Kate Beatrice Shaffer, of Atchison, Kansas, were married by Justice of the Peace Oberfelder, at his office, on Thursday afternoon, November 30th.—Sidney Telegraph.

CHAMBERLAIN-WILLIAMS
Allen Chamberlain, of North Platte, District Superintendent of the North Platte district of the M. E. church, and Miss Catherine Williams, of Scottsbluff, were married Thursday evening, November 30, at the Methodist parsonage, by Rev. E. J. Hayes. They left the same evening for their home in North Platte.—Sidney Telegraph.

McGill; vice president, Wm. Sullivan; rec. sec., Gus Wendlebo; fin. sec., T. G. Waddell; treas., Chas. Grassman; conductor, Ed. Fagan; sentinel, John Schirk.

DEATH OF AGED MINISTER
The death of Rev. Bazel Hunt on November 27, at his ranch in Cherry county east a cloud of sadness over the ministry and members of the M. E. church of northwestern Nebraska, owing to his large acquaintance in this country and the esteem in which he was held. The following from the Merriman Mayerick gives the particulars of his death and information regarding his life work:

"This whole community was shocked yesterday, by the report that Rev.

Bazel Hunt had died very suddenly of heart failure at his ranch home, about three miles east of Ell. He was in Merriman Sunday and held services, leaving for home the next morning, and while here he complained of not feeling well. However yesterday morning he did the usual chores around the place and about eleven o'clock stated that he believed he would lay down a while, and at the same time started for his room, but fell before he reached the bed and was dead. The deceased was born in 1851, and had passed his sixtieth birthday. He has been a minister of the Methodist Episcopal church for the past thirty-five years, preaching the gospel in the sand hills of Cherry county for over 21 years and receiving all the knocks of the early settler. His whole heart was in his life's work and his soul was in the hands of the Lord. Besides being a kind and loving husband and father, he was always ready with a kind word and helping hand for his fellow beings. He leaves a wife and ten children, four boys and six girls, as well as the whole community to mourn their loss. The funeral will be conducted from the M. E. church, of which he was pastor, tomorrow afternoon, under the guidance of the I. O. O. F. and M. W. A. orders, and the burial will take place in the Merriman cemetery.

BOXING CONTEST

M. W. Hunsaker of Lakeside was in Alliance Monday having bills printed and distributed, announcing a boxing contest in the M. W. A. hall of that town, Friday night, December 22. Ten rounds for a five hundred dollar purse between W. M. Hughes and Jack Writsman. Six rounds preliminaries will be by C. L. Hancock and Josh Pryor, and Tommy Hughes and Fred Smith. Admission one dollar.

RETURNS FROM TEXAS

Mrs. Phillip Nohe, Sr., arrived yesterday morning on her return from her southern trip. She got back a few days earlier than she expected, having intended to stop a few days in Kansas City to visit friends, but changed her plans and came on home without stopping as long as she had planned. She was much pleased with some parts of Texas but some parts of that state fall far short of her ideas of a desirable country. One of the things that surprised her was the cold wave that struck that part of the south while she was there, freezing water pipes and causing a good deal of discomfort and inconvenience. Although having had a pleasant trip, Mrs. Nohe is glad to get back to Alliance.
